I just received your letter and have been thinking and thinking of you only since then am sorry you was mad the other night hope it was not my fault I laid awake in bed thinking of it and you lost sight in hell after I got back and it was hell on my mind this morning guess it will be intell you told me George and I went to a show last night

I thank you for those apples they were I have fired ate one of them last night at the show and you know who I was thinking of taking I was eating it wish you was there so you can tell me suppose you are working hard by this time I am on the brunt back waiting to my dear
